REPORTS.

Church Literature.

The relation of Methodist publications and periodicals to the interest and success of our church, and to religion generally, is vital.

Our great publishing houses command our respect and are worthy of our pride and our patronage.

The products of our presses include a rich variety of literature, ranging from standard theology to the picture leaves for the primary department of our Sunday schools, adapted respectively to pastor's study, laymen's houses, Epworth League Chapters, and all primary departments of our church.

The intinerating libraries of the Epworth Leagues have created an increasing desire among Epworthians to acquaint themselves with the knowledge and inspiration to be derived therefrom. The Methodist Review, the leading magazine of our church, should be read by every pastor who would acquaint himself with the leading thought of the church; and every intelligent layman who aspires to keep in touch with the philosophical, ethical and literary thought of the best talent of our great church. No one can be an intelligent Methodist who does not read regularly some of our church papers. We therefore, heartily commend to both preachers and people some one of our great church papers most likely to give them the needed information regarding the work and state of the church within the boundary of the Conference, and of the church generally. For such sources of information we would refer them to the Christian Advocate, W. C. A., M. A. J. and the Epworth Herald. Especially, in view of the vital relation of the M. A. J. to the work of our church in the south, do we urge upon our brethern in the ministry to earnestly strive to increase its circulation among our people, and upon our laymen to give it a more liberal patronage than heretofore.

Respectfully submitted,

C. C. WYATT.

Report on Sunday Schools.

We congratulate the many Sunday school workers with the glad tidings that advancement has been made throughout the Holston Conference during the year; more Sunday schools have been organized, more students been enrolled, and a greater spirit of devotion ; and hopefulness for future success seems to permeate our entire field.

We recommend that our people get in touch with our publishing house and Sunday school union, T. B. Neely, secretary of the latter, and supply themselves with our own publications so far as is practicable. We further urge that the Districts, circuits and stations organize Sunday School Boards as the Discipline provides and do more conventional work.

Respectfully submitted,

Report on Tracts.

Few denominations have the advantage of good literature that we have. Our Book Concern is one among the largest publishing houses in the United States ; centrally located in New York City, with a branch house in Cincinnati and depositories in six other large cities, all easy of access and doing an enormous amount of business ; the receipts of which, in a single year, amount to more than one and a half million dollars. The large membership should feel that the property is as much their's as the secretary himself, and therefore should be interested along with the minister in the collections for, and the distribution of the literature of the Tract Society. In many parts of the Conference persons are teaching eccentric doctrines on the subject of Holliness ; the Mormons and others are putting their Tracts of questionable doctrine into the hands of our people. Thus disrupting the peace of our Zion. This can best be overcome by the use of our own literature. The press is a power. The people will read something. We therefore recommend that every pastor give some special attention to the distribution of Tracts and take collections.

Observance of the Christian Sabbath.

Resolved, That we reaffirm our interest in the Sunday League of America represented by Dr. Edward Thompson.

Resolved, That we will co-operate with their organization in its effort to stimulate thought and develop sentiment on the manner of Sabbath observance.

Resolved, That we will arrange to preach at least once this year, at every appointment, on "The necessity of preserving our American type of Sunday."

G. W. COLEMAN,
J. M. MELEAR.

CERTIFICATE OF ORDINATION.

This is to certify that on the seventh day of October, A. D., 1900, I ordained the following, under the election of the Holston Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, as Deacons; Robert Walker, Thomas Charlesworth, Sam. P. Angel, Elmer W. Serl; and at the same time and place, Geo. W. Marine from the Cumberland Presbyterian Church took the ordination vows as an Elder.

Presiding Bishop.

American Bible Society.

The work of the American Bible Society is so well known that we need only consider the important fact that the expansion of its work, demanded by the new conditions of an expanded country and larger missionary work, makes necessary enlarged collections and benefactions immediately.

W. B. RIPPETOE.
J. S. BEST.

Church Extension.

We, your committee on Church Extension, recommend for adoption the following resolutions.

1. We heartily congratulate the Board of Church Extension and the church-at-large on the remarkable success of their work through a period of thirty-two years.
2. That our country being new, with rapidly increasing population and new territorial additions, will continue to need church extension in the future as in the past, and that our church by fostering and strengthening their work will increase its own power to do the larger work now thrown upon us.
3. That we, as a Conference, will not be content with anything less than a full response to the call of the general committee for our proper share in church extension; until everywhere in communities now destitute, the people shall have opportunity to "enter His courts with praise."
4. That we, as a Conference, will co-operate with the Board of Church Extension in securing within the ensuing three years the Twentieth Century Thank-offerings for church extension to the amount of $1,000,000.

5. That our Presiding Elders be requested to apportion with care the full amount asked for church extension to the several districts and pastoral charges for collection; and that, availing ourselves of the helps provided by the Board and especially christianity in earnest and glad tidings, we will present this cause in all our churches and endeavor to secure at least the amount asked in accordance with the and plan of our Discipline.

6. That we ask the brethren to take this collection if practicable within the first three months of the Conference year.

RESOLUTIONS.

BISHOP GOODSSELL.

Whereas, The General Conference has again fixed Episcopal residence in Chattanooga, and has appointed the Rev. Bishop Daniel A. Goodsell our resident bishop for another quadrennium; therefore Resolved, That the Holston Conference rejoices in this action of the General Conference, and most heartily welcomes Bishop Goodsell and his family back again to our midst.

Resolved, secondly, That we extend to him a cordial invitation, not only to our churches and pulpits as our chief pastor, but also to our homes as a fellowworker in loving sympathy with all our efforts, and as a brother beloved in the Lord.

J. A. RUBLE,
J. D. ROBERSON,
J. M. TABER, JR.,
J. J. MANKER,
J. F. PERRY,
R. J. COOKE.

PARSONAGES.

Methodist preachers always have been and always will be itinerants, as a rule, moving from place to place. The expense and inconvenience they suffer from having no homes provided for their families on their arrival upon new charges can only be known by themselves and those who have had a like experience. But very few of the people whom they serve have ever seriously considered this fact, and are not likely to unless their attention is called to it. We believe with proper effort upon the part of every pastor, that each pastoral charge within the bounds of the Holston Conference could, in the course of the next twenty-four months, be provided with a comfortable parsonage, fitted up with all necessary heavy furniture, and thus insure every pastor in the Conference a home for his reception on any pastoral charge to which he might be sent; therefore,

Resolved, That every pastor of the Holston Conference, as soon as it is practicable after his arrival upon the charge to which he may be assigned next year, take such steps to this end as to secure the approval, sympathy and help of his people, and thus insure the success of such enterprise. And that the presiding elders of the various districts use their influence to this end wherever they go in convincing the people of the feasibility and practicability of such a plan.

Resolutions.

Resolved, That this, the second visit of Bishop Goodsell as president of the Holston Conference, has been eminently satisfactory and gratifying to us, and we would hereby assure him of our sincere appreciation of his truly great addresses and sermon, and the kind and brotherly spirit which he has manifested among us, and that we shall gladly welcome him as our presiding bishop at any future session.

Resolved, That we record our hearty thanks to the people of Chattanooga who have greeted us with open doors and warm hearts and unbounded hospitality, making our sojourn one of genuine delight.

Resolved, That the pastor of this church, the Rev. J. M. Taber; the presiding elder of the district, Rev. J. J. Manker, together with several committees, especially the music committee, deserve and are hereby given our grateful recognition and lasting obligation for their painstaking labor in making every necessary provision for our comfort and accommodation.

Resolved, That we express our appreciation for the courtesies shown us in the matter of transportation by the railroads to this session of the Conference.

Resolved, That we record our thanks to the press of the city for the excellent and full reports given of the Conference from day to day.

Resolved, That we extend a vote of thanks to the laymen of this church for providing the necessary expenses attached to the excursion to Chickamauga Park, and to Gen. Boynton and Capt. A. J.

Gahagan for personally conducting the Conference and pointing out points of interest in the Park.

Signed,

REPORTS OF PRESIDING ELDERS.

ATHENS DISTRICT.

TO THE PRESIDENT AND MEMBERS OF THE HOLSTON ANNUAL CONFERENCE.

DEAR FATHERS AND BRETHREN:—It is with a profound sense of gratitude to Almighty God, the great head of the church, that I present this, my third annual report as Presiding Elder of Athens District.

The pastors are all yet alive, and death has not entered any of their homes during the year.

At the last session of the Conference, members or probationers of the Conference were appointed to all the charges.

Five of the fifteen pastors are closing their first year on their respective charges, namely: D. G. Pile, Cleveland Station; W. B. Reppetoe, Maryville Circuit; J. W. Cardwell, Friendsville Circuit; J. S. Best, Erie Circuit; and I. G. Taylor, Madisonville Circuit. Four are closing their second year, as follows: E. H. McLaughlin, Athens Station; T. R. West, Loudon Circuit; P. H. Scarbrough, Decatur Circuit; and A. M. Rose, Ebenezer and Lenoir Circuit. Five are closing a third year, namely: J. J. Robinett, Maryville Station; W. S. Brackney, Ducktown; M. C. Bruner, Athens Circuit, Hazen, Oaks, Kingston Station; and W. S. Grant, Chatata Circuit. T. G. Chase is closing his fifth year on Cleveland Circuit: With but few exceptions, the pastors have labored faithfully with varying degrees of success. There have been more or less conversions and accessions on all the charges. J. S. Best, A. M. Rose and P. H. Scarbrough have been quite successful in revival work on their respective charges.

The spiritual condition of Athens District as a whole is very good—peace and harmony prevails throughout our borders.

The Sunday School work was perhaps never better.

The Epworth League is doing good work in seven of the pastoral charges. We have now nine chaplains in the bounds of the district.

The Junior League was never more popular or prosperous, with an encouraging outlook for the future. Miss Ethel Manlove, of Knoxville, employed by the Conference Cabinet as Field Worker in the interest of the Epworth League, rendered some very excellent service at Cleveland, and Ducktown, Maryville and Loudon Circuits in our Junior League Work. We have now eleven Junior Leagues within the bounds of the district.

CHURCH BUILDING—We have made some advance in church building this year. Our people at Beaver Ridge, Ebenezer Circuit, A. M. Rose, pastor, who have been worshipping for a number of years in an old brick structure, are now ready to move into a beautiful frame structure, built on modern style, costing $1,000, not including the ground. The church is now ready for dedication. The people of Beaver Ridge deserve great credit for their fidelity, zeal and liberality. This is one of the best country churches within the bounds of the district. The church at Red Hill, Cleveland Circuit, T. G. Chase, pastor, begun last year, is nearing completion. It will cost when complete about $700.00. Our church at Friendsville, J. W. Cardwell, pastor, has been relieved of a $300.00 debt this year. Repairs on our church at Loudon, T. R. West, pastor, begun at the close of last Conference, have been carried forward to completion at a cost of $130.00.

The Twentieth Century Thank Offering movement has not received that hearty endorsement and support among our people that it should. The following is the amount raised within the bounds of the district:

By Prof. W. A. Wright for Grant University in cash and subscription .	$ 3,218 98
For building and improving church property and on old indebtedness	1,650 00
Total	$4,868 98

The following statement will serve to show the financial condition of the District as compared with last year.

For ministerial support last year:

Claims in the aggregate	$6,195
Receipts in the aggregate	5,491

For ministerial support this year:

Claims in the aggregate	$6,475
Receipts in the aggregate	5,600

The receipts for benevolences as compared with last year:

For Missions in the aggregate last year . .	$348
For all the benevolences	897
For Missions in the aggregate this year . .	$375
For all the benevolences	900

The Grant University, the College of Liberal Arts, is located in the town of Athens; enters upon another year with encouraging prospects. Under the leadership of President Race, the work done is very thorough and satisfactory.

The moral and religious influences thrown around students are of the most elevating character.

Seven hundred dollars have been expended on improvements of the University property.

As to my own work, I will say that I have held 57 quarterly meetings in person; have assisted in six protracted meetings on different charges, several days each. Held one District Conference at Kingston. Baptised 26 adults and 10 infants. Conducted six funeral services. Preached 188 sermons. Made 306 visits in homes throughout the District. Have traveled in the performance of my duty as Presiding Elder, 3,400 miles.

Respectfully submitted,

J. F. PERRY, Presiding Elder.

GREENEVILLE DISTRICT.

I present to the Holston Conference my second annual report of the Greeneville District.

In many respects this district is in a better condition than ever before in its history. Methodism in this territory is substantially growing and wields as great an influence over the people as any other church in the same field. Our church services are well attended and our pastors are well received. They are a splendid company of men, and in the main have done a year's good work.

Four of them have been seriously ill during the year, Bros. T. S. Walker, G. W. Clendenen, G. B. Cox and W. C. Miller, but their illness did not very materially affect the interests of the church, as their reports will show. Aside from this the health of our pastors has been good. We gratefully acknowledge God's providence and goodness toward us. We have tried to look after every interest pertaining to the welfare and progress of the church. This district covers a large territory, including nearly all of twelve counties, and requires a great amount of hard labor to travel it, owing to the few railroad facilities. I have traveled by rail and private conveyance this year 3,300 miles, have preached 150 sermons, made about 323 visits, held 68 quarterly conferences in person and four by proxy, have assisted in conducting one camp meeting, at Sulphur Springs, and presided over our District Conference.

Our District Conference was well attended. Nearly all the pastors and several leading laymen rendered excellent service in the discussion of the topics under consideration.

SPIRITUAL CONDITION—The spiritual condition of the district is excellent, there having been gracious revivals held on almost every charge, resulting in 1,545 conversions and about 700 accessions to the church. These revivals have been conducted largely by the pastors themselves. On two of these charges evangelists have assisted, rendering good service.

FINANCIAL INTERESTS.—We are glad to be able to report a healthier financial condition than last year. We have tried to have an increase over last year in our collections for Benevolences, and have succeeded on a majority of the charges. In two years we have almost doubled our collections.

CHURCH BUILDINGS—One church has been dedicated this year on the Surgoinsville Circuit, at Ebbing and Flswing Springs, and one at Shingleton, on the Mountain City Circuit, each being valued at about $1,000. Two other churches are almost ready for dedication, Newport Circuit, Butler, ready for dedication, and one on the Chucky City Circuit at Stone Dam. A number of other churches are under way that will be completed in the near future. At Sulphur Springs Camp-ground a large arbor has been erected at a cost of $350. There has been a movement to the front in the way of repairing and beautifying church property. The interior of our church at Greeneville has been repaired at a cost of $400, and is now one among the neatest auditoriums in the Holston Conference. The church at Limestone, Chucky City Circuit, has been repaired at a cost of $175. One hundred dollars has been expended on our church at Telford's, making it quite neat and attractive in appearance. The pastor at Johnson City Station now occupies a new parsonage, begun and almost completed this year. It is a handsome residence, located on a corner lot, close to the church, and when finished will be worth $2,000. Both pastor and people are to be congratulated on this achievement, and this is a much needed improvement.

TWENTIETH CENTURY THANK OFFERING FUND—The Twentieth Century Thank Offering Fund has not been forgotten. We are able to report $15,720.00 in the way of buildings and repairs.

THE EPWORTH LEAGUE—The Epworth League interest in this district is not what it should be, but is increasing. We had with us for about six weeks Miss Ethel Maulove, Conference Organizer, and wherever she had opportunity she rendered most valuable service. The people were delighted and enthused by her addresses. Her work in this district was only begun when she was called home. We have several chapters but not all of them are in good working order, and there are a number of other places where Leagues might be organized. We have about eighty Sunday Schools with an enrollment of about 5,000.

CHURCH SCHOOLS—We have three church schools located within the bounds of this district. Warren College, at Chucky City; Kingsley Seminary, at Bloomingdale; and Oakland Seminary, at Baileyton. Under the supervision of Profs. S. H. Thompson, Joseph H. Ketron and — Self these schools have enjoyed a prosperous year. These schools are free of indebtedness.

CHURCH LITERATURE—We wish we might bring every Methodist home to realize the great importance of church literature to every form of church work. We hope the time is not far distant when our own Methodist Advocate Journal shall be taken by every Methodist family in the Greeneville District.

KNOXVILLE DISTRICT.

Report of the Presiding Elder of the Knoxville District to the Annual Conference, beginning October 3, 1900.

This district consists of seventeen pastoral charges, all of which except three, have been served by appointment from Conference, these three being served by supplies.

THE PASTORS—All entered upon their work in due time and have toiled through the year with faithfulness and varying efficiency and acceptability. These men and their families have been blessed with good health generally. There have been very few interruptions of labor by reason of affliction, either personal or family.

SPIRITUALY—In revival work great interest has been manifested, as indicated by the amount of time given in the work and the glorious results which have followed, the pastors reporting twelve hundred (1,200) conversions. A very earnest effort has been made to awaken new interest in the class meeting and to revive the old time love-feast, with encouraging results. We were appointed as Presiding Elder in 1874, and with the exception of one interval of a few years, have served continuously in this position, and at no period through these years have the congregations been better, if as good, while our quarterly meetings have been characterized by spiritual power truly inspiring. This changed condition for the better, we attribute more than to any other one thing, the emphasis given the love-feast. Brethren, to our detriment and loss, we have in a measure swung away from this feature of primitive Methodism. In God's name let us swing back.

TWENTIETH CENTURY GIFT MOVEMENT—In this something has been done. On Fair Garden Circuit, one of the neatest of modern churches, well worth $1,500, has been built, and September 23rd was dedicated, Rev. R. J. Cooke, D. D., officiating.

SEVIERVILLE—Charge at Middle Creek. Our people have planned to build a $2,000 church, which would now be in course of erection but for the unusual prevalence of a fatal fever during the last ten weeks. This enterprise will most certainly be carried out in the near future.

MORRISTOWN—A lot consisting of three acres, with fair residence and barn splendidly located, worth $500, has been purchased for a parsonage, and nearly all of the purchase money having been paid.

LUTTRELL STREET—This charge has been carrying an indebtedness of $650 since the building of their beautiful church, which amount has been wiped out.

CLINCH STREET CHURCH—Here our people have been carrying an indebtedness of more than $10,000 ever since the building of their elegant church. The pastor reports the arranging of an effective plan for the complete retirement of this indebtedness.

ASYLUM STREET—In repairs, $210.

NEWPORT—In repairs and debt Paying, $255.

HOLSTON CHARGE—In repairs, $100.

THORN GROVE—Indebtedness on parsonage, $160.

FOR EDUCATION—By cash and subscriptions something more than $2,000 has been secured, $600 of this amount being the gift of J. W. Fisher, of Newport, Tenn., for Grant University.

BENEVOLENCES—Considerable attention and effort has been given to this subject. The plan recommended is that laid down in our most excellent book of discipline, which plan in our humble judgment, cannot be improved upon. As illustrative of our thought, one Sunday School limited in financial ability and comparatively small in numbers, by being organized into a Missionary Society, has contributed $30 for the cause of missions, about one half of all the amount paid by a large charge for all the benevolences. Had all the Sunday Schools of the district done as well as this one, the contributions from this source alone would have exceeded $2,500.

EPWORTH LEAGUE—This, the youngest department in our church polity, is proving a most valuable help in developing the young life in the church. An Epworth League chapter, organized and conducted within the limitations and in the spirit, defined by the discipline in every society, ought to be the motto of every pastor. Nothing in our judgment would so quicken the spiritual life of our young people to the great cheering of the anxious heart of the faithful pastor, as this.

OUR CHURCH SCHOOL, MURPHY COLLEGE—This young institution is located at Sevierville, Tenn. The college building is a neat brick, containing eleven rooms, and with grounds and all buildings and equipments is valued at $18,000. The Girl's Industrial Home is a modern three story frame building, the third story incomplete. The home is in charge of Mrs. H. F. Ketron. The faculty of this institution consists of President, H. F. Ketron, A. M.; Instructors, J. M. Boyd, Florence Parrine, Inez M. Martin, Nannie M. Cureton, music; and Mae Susong, elocution. The enrollment to date, 240. There is an atmosphere pervading this school truly inspiring, and it is the judgment of many that in no time in its history has the outlook been more promising.

HINDRANCES—Through a large section of this district an unusual drought prevailed last year, so that in many communities our farmers have been under the necessity of buying the farm products, especially corn and hay, for at least one-fourth of the year. This condition has brought to many of our people a stringency in money matters, which tells inevitably and unfavorably in the support of the ministry and benevolences of the church.

PERSONALLY—I have been afflicted with an increasing cartarrhal trouble for a number of years, but up to this year it has never interrupted me in my work. It has been my plan to give from twelve to sixteen weeks in assisting the pastors in revival work. This year the trouble has so increased that I have given only five weeks to revival work. Of the sixty-eight quarterly conferences I have personally held sixty. On January 8th I reached home to find my faithful and loving wife fatally ill. For six days I waited, wept and prayed, until Sabbath morning, January 14th, she was not, because God took her. I suppose that the life thus ended here, but arose to be renewed in Heaven, had in it foibles, but to my heart's love they are lost in the sea of oblivion. While that life comes back to me like one sweet angelic song, without a discordant note, filling my heart and home with cheering music all through the enduring night of loneliness, with my soul keyed to the spirit of resignation, out of the sorrowing night their comes the sentiment: "Oh, land of rest, for thee I sigh, when will the moment come, when I shall lay my armor by, and rest in peace at home!"

EXTENDING THE WORK, LONSDALE—Here a Mission has been organized, ten members. Sunday School, forty members.

J. A. RUBLE, Presiding Elder.

CLINTON DISTRICT.

Report of the Presiding Elder of Clinton District :

The preachers and membership of the church have many reasons of gratitude to God for his numerous blessings to them during the past conference year. None of the pastors have died, and death has not entered any of their homes. Some of them have had serious afflictions, but the Lord has been merciful, and held the last enemy in abeyance. The family of Bro. G. M. Stout have all been down with fever during the last year, but are all convalescent or have regained their wonted health. Bro. J. M. Durham is prevented from attendance upon this session of the Conference owing to the critical illness of his wife.

Considering the district as a whole, and viewing the work on all lines, I am confident that the past year has been the best year of any of the five since I have been connected with the work. There are a few places, however, in the bounds of the district, where but little progress has been made. For this reason I prefer in presenting this report to depart from my usual method and mention the several charges separately. I begin at the west end of the district and move eastwardly.

JAMESTOWN CIRCUIT was left at Conference to be supplied, and T. Y. Broyles was employed to take charge of the work, but resigned the pastoral care of the charge before the year was out. He had, while he remained on the work, a fair measure of success, except in his own support. The failure of crops in this section the previous year so interfered with his support that he felt compelled to relinquish his work. There have been about one hundred conversions on the circuit during the year, and about half that number joined the church. The spiritual condition of the work is fair. Four Sunday Schools in successful operation. Owing to the crop failure the finances are low.

NEW RIVER CIRCUIT has had for pastor, A. C. Peters, an able and popular member of the Annual Conference, who has in the main been attentive to his work and has had a reasonable amount of results from his labors. There have been eleven conversions, and five have joined the church. A lot has been secured and subscription taken for a new church building. This charge has suffered serious loss by members moving away. At Paint Rock a strong class has almost entirely disappeared, and at Glen Mary but few remain. The finances are low.

SUNBRIGHT CIRCUIT, with W. T. Sanders as pastor, has had a very good year. The people are spiritual and true to the church. There are six Sunday Schools, all doing well. There have been received into full connection, 41; on probation, 63; conversions, 107. One new class has been organized, with a fair outlook for a new house of worship. The finances in good shape.

DEER LODGE has for pastor, T. H. Russell, a youthful man of his age. The pastor has been abundant in labors and zeal; all the interests of the church have received his attention. There have been sixty conversions and 75 have united with the church. The circuit has paid better this year than it has since I have known it.

OLIVER SPRINGS has had for pastor, W. L. Oliver, a bright and promising young man from Grant University. The circuit is in a state of general prosperity, and the pastor universally popular.

SCARBROUGH CIRCUIT has had for pastor, D. H. Gibson, and the work is in better condition than it has been since I have known it. There have been 87 conversions, and 45 united with the church. The people seem to be spiritual, the Sunday Schools are doing well, and the prayer meetings well attended.

CLINTON has had a year something better than an average. The pastor, J. H. Amis, has held the fort and faithfully performed the ordinary duties of a pastor. Thirteen conversions and 13 accessions to the church. The Sunday School, under the able superintendency of J. A. Fowler, is doing excellent; the League, fair; the Junior League, splendid; $115 expended on improvements; $300 subscription on the Twentieth Century Fund; finances in other respects about par; 19 church papers taken. This church has sustained great loss in the death of W. E. Brown.

ANDERSONVILLE CIRCUIT is a good work with a number of excellent people on it, but it has not had a very prosperous year. The pastor, M. H. Koon, who has been noted in the past for successful work, has labored earnestly and faithfully, but has not had the hearty co-operation that he deserved, nor has he achieved his usual happy results. There seems to be a lack of unity among the membership. This charge has a good parsonage, and ought to have a pastor living in it. The Sunday Schools are doing well; the finances rather low.

COAL CREEK—This work has six churches, three from the old Well Spring Circuit and three from the Andersonville. In most of this charge the spiritual condition is quite good. There are some of the members dissatisfied with the present arrangement of the work. There are six Sunday Schools, doing well. Two revivals have been held, resulting in 18 conversions and 12 accessions to the church. Luther Clear, the pastor, has been zealous and abundant in labors, and has accomplished much good.

RUTLEDGE—S. V. Lowe, pastor, has had a good year. Subscription has been taken for a new church at Cedar Grove. Three revivals held, 48 conversions, 17 united with the church; eight Advocate Journals taken and five other church papers; $30 raised for the famine in India. We expect the best report from this work that it has had for several years. Bro. Lowe is climbing.

BIG VALLEY—The pastor of this circuit, C. W. Miller, has done faithful and valuable work, and the results are of a high order; he is popular with his people and the work of the Lord prospers in his hands. All interests of the church receive due attention. Three aged, able and influential local preachers have died in the bounds of this work this year: Alvis Brogan, Asa Brogan and Wm. Crutchfield.

TAZEWELL has Bro. Cadle for pastor. This is his second year on the work. A part of the places on the work have been neglected, and at part of the places very good work has been done. I cannot say that the work as a whole has been prosperous.

MANARDVILLE CIRCUIT has had J. M. Durham for pastor. He has been hindered very much by sickness in his family, but he has had a strong band of loyal workers who have kept things going. The spiritual condition of the circuit is good. Three revivals have been held, 30 conversions, 20 have joined the church. There are five good Sunday Schools, three church papers taken, one new church being built, a number of Methodist books sold, and the benevolences not as good as usual.

WELL SPRING has been under the pastoral care of A. Y. Snavelly, who has labored faithfully and not in vain. There has been 50 conversions, 53 accessions to the church. There are three Sunday Schools doing well, six church papers taken, the finances rather low. The spiritual condition of the charge is fair. Raised $30 on the Twentieth Century Movement.

LA FOLLETTE, G. M. Stout, pastor, has had a good year. Notwithstanding the pastor has had serious and protracted sickness, all the members of his family having had fever, yet he has worked so earnestly and faithfully that large and valuable results have been achieved. One new church worth $1,200 has been built and dedicated. The spiritual condition of the work is good. Three revivals have been held, 109 conversions, 54 have joined the church; five Sunday Schools, seven church papers taken, $30 raised for benevolences and the pastor growing in favor with the people.

JELLICO has had the best year of its history. The spiritual condition good, the prayer meetings and Sunday School large and interesting; 182 conversions, 73 have joined the church this year, the membership has been more than doubled; 14 church papers taken; $200 have been raised for various benevolent causes; finances all right. The pastor, J. M. Emert, abundant in labors and loved by all except the saloon men.

NEWCOMB, until this year, was connected with Jellico; at last Conference it was made a separate charge and B. C. Taylor was appointed pastor. The results have abundantly proven the wisdom of the separation. This charge has had a remarkable year of prosperity; 210 souls have been converted to Christ, 92 have been added to the church, several of the foremost people of the town; the spiritual condition excellent; $70 raised for the Twentieth Century Movement, $15 for India famine; finances solid.

The district as a whole is in better shape than it has been since I have been connected with it. There have been about 1,000 conversions, one new church built, four others under way. There are some hinderances to the work; 1, inadequate support for the pastors; 2, a lack of activity on the part of the stewards; 3, a want of genuine benevolence by many of the people; 4, a scarcity of Methodist books and church papers in the homes of the people. As to my own work, I have done what I could, and crave the blessings of God upon the work and workers.

CHATTANOOGA DISTRICT.

1. CONDITIONS.—In order to a correct understanding of the work and progress of the church in any community, the condition of the people, with their natural and social environment, must be taken into account.

Portions of the Chattanooga District lie on the mountain table lands, where the soil is thin, the settlements widely separated, and the people few in numbers, whole counties having a smaller population than a single civil district in other sections. The people are brave, hardy and generous. Their manner of life is simple and inexpensive. A little money goes a long way—when it goes at all. Here the circuits are large, the appointments far apart, the membership small, and the means of support and the possibilities of growth meager. Another portion of the district lies in the valleys. Here nature has been more generous of her gifts. Means of livelihood are easier and more ample, and a larger population admits of smaller circuits and better financial support.

Still another considerable part of our constituency is found in the towns and villages, in which we have strength and standing about equal in the main with other denominations.

As to educational facilities the people in the towns are most favorably situated, while those in the mountain sections are at the greatest disadvantage. Those in the valleys range between. The conveniencies for the public and social means of grace, notably as to Sunday school and Epworth league, vary in about the same way; best in the towns, not nearly so good in the country appointments, and far less adequate in the mountain portions.

The First church with which we are holding our present session, by reason of its strength and commanding influence, stands, in some sense, if not alone, at least somewhat apart from all others in the district. And yet to its honor be it said that in generous sympathy and financial helpfulness it is found side by side with all the rest and especially near to the weak and needy.

But differing as these several portions of the work do in the particulars indicated, there are other respects in which they are more nearly alike.

Financial conditions are everywhere stringent. Earning in most cases little more than is required for their own present and pressing necessities, is it strange that to the people it sometimes seems not an easy task to pay the preacher and meet the claims for the benevolences?

In common with every part of the country the whole district is suffering with something like the "cosmic chill," the prevailing spirit of unbelief and ungodliness. It is in the atmosphere, and affects all ranks and classes. The things of the present life are dominant. Religion and the church are taken as a matter of course--good enough in their place, but that place is not, in the common mind, the first and the highest. The Sabbath is to many a day of toil; with vastly more it is a day of mere recreation and amusement. A small remnant only hold it still as the Holy Sabbath of the Lord.

The secular papers nearly everywhere have the right of way, while the literature of the church is in many homes a rare visitor, even if known at all. The minds of the people, old and young, are thus preoccupied with influences not helpful to piety, or even to serious views of life and duty. Religious beliefs and convictions, in the absence of the illuminating and regulating agency of the religious press, are deficient in definiteness and strength--sufficient, perhaps to color and tone the life a little, but not to regulate and purify it. And religious experience, without the stimulating and nourishing diet of the church newspaper, is necessarily wanting in the intelligent zeal, the confident faith, the holy fervor, the abounding joy necessary to make the church "the salt of the earth and the light of the world."

In the midst of such environment and such conditions have been the lot and labor of the presiding elder and preachers of the Chattanooga District for the year now closing.

2. PASTORAL SUPPLY AND SERVICE.—When conference adjourned last year four charges were left without any pastoral assignment. For three others local preachers were designated as "supplies." Within a few weeks J. M. Wolfe, of the Georgia conference was transferred by Bishop Foss and stationed at Avondale and Sherman Heights. Alton Park was supplied for two quarters by A. G. Buxton, and for the remainder of the year by A. C. Ketron. Epworth has had three supplies—Victor West, the first quarter, C. H. Porter, the second and third, and S. P. Angel the last. Ridgedale and Tabernacle had during the first two quarters T. D. Rowe and J. N. Mason, but for the last two both churches have had the service of Harry R. Caldwell. Tracy City circuit has been in charge of James Hart.

About the end of the first quarter L. O. Crowder, pastor of Graysville circuit, died at his post of duty, faithful and heroic to the last, and loved and lamented by all. At the close of the second quarter J. W. Bowling was appointed pastor and has served out the year.

Just after the opening of the second quarter, J. U. Davis, admitted at our last session and appointed to South Pittsburgh, sickened and died. He was talented, consecrated and well equipped for the ministry, and had already won the affection and admiration of his people. No suitable person could be obtained for the place thus vacated until about the first of July, when R. A. Simonds was appointed pastor at South Pittsburgh. H. M. Torrey having just previously accepted the oversight of the adjacent country appointments.

All the regular pastors and nearly all the supplies, have done faithful service. A more noble, self-sacrificing, efficient company of men it has never been my privilege to be associated with than my collaborators in this district during this conference year.

3. SUPERVISION AND WORK OF THE PRESIDING ELDER.—Within the provisions of the Discipline it has been my constant endeavor to make my work and administration fit the conditions actually existing throughout the district. In many ways—in the pulpit, at the quarterly conferences, and around the fireside—the broader views of truth and doctrine, and of life and its responsibilities, duties and privilege, have been set forth. The young and old, but especially the young, have been summoned and encouraged to high and noble aims in life. And in all church work and church business my constant aim has been to introduce the better methods and arouse the people to greater fidelity.

The churches without pastors—some of them for weeks, and others for months—demanded my special attention. By the hearty cooperation of Drs. Race, Newcomb and Ackerman, and J. B. Ziegler and L. P. Roberts, and of several of the theological students, the Sunday services in those churches were regularly maintained.

All my quarterly visitations to the various charges in the district have been regularly made except two, when affliction in my family prevented.

The old-time Gospel of salvation for sinners, and of practical Bible holiness for all believers, has been carried to the people in their homes as well as in the pulpits. Consecration of heart and energy, of mind and money, to the daily service of God has been warmly and earnestly commended as pleasing to him and in every way best for his people.

Close brotherly relations have been cultivated with the pastors. They have been affectionately constrained to the utmost activity and fidelity in their pastoral and revival work ; nor less so in behalf of the church benevolences and in the use of all the available educational agencies so well provided by the church—the teaching office of the pulpit, Sunday school instruction, the church papers, the distribution of tracts, and the instruction of the children. And not only have these duties been pressed upon the preachers, but it has been to me a pleasant duty to bear with them my just and proper share both in planning and prosecuting the work given us to do. Nor has it been of less concern to me to maintain intimate and sympathetic relations with the official members and with the people, in order to enlist them more fully in every department of the work of the church, both spiritual and temporal, especially in the payment of the salaries and in providing for the benevolences.

The Twentieth Century movement, both in its spiritual and in its financial aspects, has been kept in the foreground, and as far as practicable pressed upon the attention of the people.

The obligations of our members and friends to support our own schools and church papers, Sunday school literature and other publications—and their own personal interest in doing so—have in every suitable way and on all proper occasions been faithfully maintained.

4. STATEMENT OF RESULTS.—The work of the year has not been without gratifying results. The faithful labors of the pastors have been rewarded with many revivals of more than ordinary power and success. So far as they can be tabulated the figures are as follows :

Conversions, 673 ; Received on probation, 314 ; Received into full membership, 279 ; Probationers now on the rolls, 316 ; Full members at present, 3,257 ; Increase in full members, 304 ; Number of Sunday schools, 54 ; Officers, teachers and scholars, 3,200.

On church indebtedness there has been paid $13,900.00 ; repairing and improving, $5,248. One new church has been built on the Graysville circuit at a cost of $750.00. It was dedicated last Sunday by the pastor, J. W. Boling, and Rev. J. B. Ziegler. A new parsonage is in course of erection in Hill City, on which $750.00 has already been raised and expended.

The amount paid on salaries is $7,668, which is an increase over last year of $329.

The amount paid on Twentieth Century fund last year was $5 000; this year, $19,174; in all, $24,174 00.

The pastors and people were made aware at the beginning of the year that every pastor raising the full apportionment for all the benevolences would again this year, as last, have the distinction of personal mention in the roll of honor in the presiding elder's report. That honor list is as follows :

James N. Taber, First Church; A. C. Ketron, Alton Park; J. M. Wolfe, Avondale and Sherman Heights; S. P. Angel, Epworth; J. S. Burnette, Hill City; L. B. Caldwell, Highland Park; H. R. Caldwell, Ridgedale and Tabernacle; G. W. Paul, Crossville; John Sanders, Daisy; Robert Walker, Dayton, Vine Grove and Spring City; James W. Boling, Graysville; W. C. Wheeler, Jasper; A. J. Murphy, Morgan Springs; R. L. Stapleton, Rockwood and Glen Alice; R. A. Simonds and H. M. Torrey, South Pittsburgh; James Hart Tracy City.

Two appointments fall short, but their deficiency has been made up by other parties, so that it is my happy privilege to report all apportionments for the benevolences paid in full for the entire district, including the amounts for the Episcopal Fund and for the Conference Claimants Fund, General Conference expenses, and also more than double the amounts raised last year for the Sunday School Union and Tract Society, for which no apportionments were made.

My report last year closed with these words :

"1. We must have the power of a pentacostal baptism, with its heart of flame, and its tongue of fire."

"2. There must be the massing of our energies with a mighty, all-constraining force of will for the actual accomplishing of the work given us of God to do."

"These conditions fulfilled, the victory is ours and the field is won."

Nearly all the preachers have this year met these conditions, and the gratifying results above recorded are their well-earned reward.

To these faithful servants of God my hearty thanks are due for their brotherly kindness and manly co-operation in all the work of the year.

The Lord has very graciously sustained and aided us all, and He it is that hath given us the increase. To His blessed and holy name we ascribe all the glory.

J. J. MANKER, P. E.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON EDUCATION.

The question of education is one of absorbing importance. Made more so to the Holston Conference by the fact that more than 100,000 women in this beautiful state can neither read nor write. And these women, too, are largely mothers in our homes in Tennessee. Out of these homes come the governing element of this country. It does not matter so much what may follow, the first ten years of this life gives bias to all the future. The free schools of this state have reached a noble grade of completeness. But these are largely confined in their results to our cities and towns. However ardently we may wish that the Bible be made a part of the caricature of the free school, there are intervals in the life of the young student almost untouched by this element of power. The church may, to no slight extent, supply this lack by her seminaries. Too much thought cannot be given to this department of educational work. The space between the free school and the university is a wide one, which is crossed by but very few. The seminary is the midway place, at which the great majority of those seeking a higher education stop after leaving the free school. The Holston Conference has not been indifferent in this field of church work. And especially in the past twenty-five years much real power has been gathered to the church and much vital life has been scattered from these centres of energy. No people have ever attained to permanent greatness who have neglected these intervening places of drill. No church has reached her attitude among any people which has not provided for the intermediate masses.

There is a culture which only the church of God can give. That culture may be largely given in her seminaries. At present there are seven seminaries under the care of the Holston Conference.

KINGSLEY SEMINARY, at Bloomingdale, Tennessee, founded twenty-three years ago, has from the beginning been under the management of the present principal, Joseph H. Ketron, A. M. It is situated in Sullivan county, near the Tennessee and Virginia state line. The history of the institution shows that while the largest part of its patronage is from East Tennessee and South-western Virginia, students have been received from fourteen different states. From the beginning, 964 different students have been received. Of this number, 529 have been non-residents. So far as can be ascertained, 242 have been trained for teaching, and 54 have studied more or less for the ministry. Kingsley Seminary has, during these twenty-three years, been meeting a real want in the territory from which most of its patronage comes. The character of the school has been such as to secure the confidence of good, intelligent people. We commend this school and urge our people there to aid in its further development.

WESLEYAN ACADEMY—This school, at Chucky City, is well located for the work of a seminary. A large range of fine farming country is tributary to this school. It has been made up of change and struggle, but its outlook for good work is favorable.

POWELL'S VALLEY SEMINARY—This is an old school, in the midst of a fine valley, which name it bears. From its geographic relation this school should do a good work.

OAKLAND SEMINARY—This school is situated in the midst of a rich farming community, and has a noble record for good work.

MURPHY COLLEGE—This school is situated in one of the old rich counties of the state, at Sevierville, Tenn. Its record has been short but good, and from its location should do a good work in its field.

PARROTTSVILLE ACADEMY—This school occupies a good property in the midst of the town from which it takes its name. This school ought to fill an important place in the educational field of the church.

HOLSTON SEMINARY—This property is located at New Market, Tenn. Has had a long and varied history. At present exists more in some property than as a living fact as a seminary.

GRANT UNIVERSITY has had another year of prosperity. The record of the year ending June 8, 1900, is as follows:

IMPROVEMENTS—During the past year the buildings of the department at Athens have been greatly improved, with the exception of Hatfield Hall, which is now undergoing repairs, so that we offer pleasant accommodations to our students. Dean Wright is now actively in the field for the purpose of securing the funds to erect during the coming year a commodious Science Hall. Workmen are now employed manufacturing the brick for this building on the college campus. In addition to satisfactory laboratory facilities, the building will contain a day study-room, a well equipped library, the furnishings of which are to be provided by one of the friends of our school living at Athens, and halls for the Sapphonian and Knightonian literary societies.

Within this year it is confidently expected that the unoccupied property of the institution between Oak and Vine streets, Chattanooga, will be graded and otherwise beautified, and that a building for university purposes will be erected thereon. Of the amount of money that is required to complete this work practically all is now on hand. The work is not to be started until the subscriptions are enough to cover the cost of the undertaking. The success of this enterprise means much to the immediate future of the university.

In this connection, we desire to place before the Conference the action of last year concerning the Twentieth Century Movement, and to endorse the same for the present year.

We would call attention to the appointment of Prof. W. A. Wright, Ph. D., as the representative of the university in the Twentieth Century Movement. The importance to the church of having a thoroughly equipped university in this section can scarcely be overestimated. The church should make the largest possible provision for Christian education. This institution was, as we believe, founded in the providence of God. She is true to our doctrines and policy. She has given many of her gifted sons to the ministry, both in home and foreign fields. The necessity is upon us to provide larger equipments. We earnestly desire that the thank-offering of our people for its endowment be as generous as the object is worthy, therefore, Resolved, 1. That we endorse the plan providing for the Twentieth Century thank-offering in our conference.

2. That we will do our utmost to raise the amount pledged by our Conference for the endowment fund.

3. That we assure our people that endowments will be handled wisely and carefully by the earnest and wide-awake president, the Rev. Dr. John H. Race.

4. That we will welcome Dean Wright, or any other representative of the university, to our churches and among our people, to present the financial interests of the institution.

5. That the ministers of the Holston Conference preach an educational sermon Sunday after Thanksgiving, setting forth the claims of Grant University, with special reference to the Twentieth Century Movement, and all money contributed to said institution be properly credited in Conference minutes.

The faculties are practically the same as last year in the various schools, save that the Deanship of the Law School has been changed, Robert Pritchard, Esq., one of the foremost lawyers of the south, now serving the university in this office.

The courses of study are being strengthened each year, especial attention being given to the fundamental branches. Moreover, let it be borne in mind that Grant University is a Christian school. Never sectarian; always denominational. Our pastors are urged to present the claims of our university to our people.

We recommend the following as Conference visitors for the ensuing year: Dr. T. B. Russell, Rev. J. H. Hodge, Rev. Hazen Oaks, Rev. T. R. West, Rev. C. C. Wyatt, School of Theology; Dr. J. J. Robinette, Rev. G. L. Francisco.

Your committee would most emphatically call the attention of the Conference to the work of the Board of Education. Notice this fact: During the Conference year just closing the Board aided twenty-one students, whose church relation fell within this Conference. The amount thus contributed aggregated $920. The Conference contributed to the Board during that time, $98.45. It is a fact that many charges in the Conference made no report of collections last year. The magnitude of the work done by the Board may be slightly gathered by the last annual report from the "Sunday School Children's Fund:" The number of students receiving aid from this fund, 1,843; the number of schools in which students were aided, 127; the total number of students aided since 1873, 9,662.

Your committee most earnestly recommends that each pastor shall urge the observance of Children's Day on his charge. And your committee commends most thoroughly, seriously, the work of the Board of Education to our pastors and people.

MEMOIRS.

The question of deaths was taken up and Rev. M. A. Rule read the following paper on W. C. Dailey:

WHEREAS, In the reorganization of the Methodist Episcopal Church in the bounds of the Holston Conference Rev. W. C. Dailey, now deceased, was the chief leader, having organized the first society; and

WHEREAS, He spent more than fifty years of active service in the ministry of our beloved Methodism; and

WHEREAS, Nothing marks the resting-place where the remains of this heroic man of God and Methodism lies; therefore, be it

Resolved, That we, as a Conference, erect a monument to his memory, as an expression of our love and appreciation of him who was in a very large sense the father of the Holston Conference.

Monument to Rev. Dailey.

J. A. Ruble pronounced a beautiful eulogy on the character of W. C. Dailey. He said that Rev. Dailey was the founder of the first Methodist church in the Holston Conference. He said that Rev. Dailey was a great friend of his family and he had known him when he (Ruble) was only 6 years of age. He enumerated many of Mr. Dailey's virtues and finished by saying that such a man ought not to be forgotten, and he moved that $50 be raised in this Conference to erect a monument to his memory, and said that he would give the first dollar. A subscription list was started and nearly $50 was raised in a few minutes.

J. A. Ruble and M. A. Rule were appointed a committee to continue the canvass for contributions.

It was moved and carried that a committee of one be appointed to superintend the erection of the monument, and M. A. Rule was appointed.

MRS. J. A. RUBLE.

RUBLE—Anna Parham was born in Knoxville, Tenn., August 30, 1844, and departed this life at her late residence in Maryvill, Tenn., January 14, 1900. She became a christian and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church in the period of her early womanhood, and ever afterward manifested a deep and abiding love for the church of her choice. She was married to Rev. James A. Ruble, of the Holston

Conference, November 8, 1866; of this union nine children were born, six of whom survive to cherish her memory as a fond and indulgent mother; while the three taken in infancy preceded her to the heavenly home. Her last illness was brief, but serious from the first. Her suffering was intense. On January 7, she was in her pew in the house of God and in her usual health; but on the next Sabbath morning just as the darkness of the night was losing itself in the approach of the glorious sun, she was released from suffering and her spirit took its departure into the eternal world. Mrs. Ruble was a woman of very pronounced personality. She was frank and candid. She was transparent, there was nothing hidden in her life. If she made a mistake—and who does not—she was quick and free to acknowledge it, thus setting herself right lest she should be misunderstood. She was a woman of large sympathies. She was ready and willing to help the needy and had pleasure in all deeds of kindness. Her motherly heart went out for her children and she did what she could to keep constantly before them the influence of a christian example. She loved her church. Deeply interested in her husband's success, she, without murmur or complaint, submitted to the hardships and peculiar trials which fall to the lot of the wife of an itinerant Methodist preacher. And these things were intensified in her case by the fact that her husband had spent sixteen years in the presiding eldership, an office which has kept him away from home much of the time. Mrs. Ruble was a sympathetic and helpful auditor—it was a poor sermon, indeed, that she could find nothing in to commend. The pastor and the church, in which she lived and worked, miss her, but take comfort in the hope that her absence here means her presence with the Lord. It was a sad providence that removed her from the activities of life, but God's ways are above our ways; we cannot understand his dealings with us; we may know (not realize here) that all things work together for good to them that love Him. "What I do thou knowest not now, but thou shalt know hereafter." Then "Wait on the Lord." The funeral services were held in her home church, conducted by her pastor, assisted by Revs. M. A. Rule, R. J. Cooke, D. D. and J. S. Petty, J. M. Melear, J. W. Jones and W. A. Saville. Her body was then laid to rest in the beautiful Magnolia Cemetery until it shall please Him who is the Resurrection and the Life to bid it arise.

J. J. ROBINETTE.

REV. J. U. DAVIS.

Rev. Jacob Ulrich Davis was born in Thorn Grove, Knox county, Tennessee, March 4, 1876. and died of typhoid fever in South Pittsburg, February 11, 1900. His parents were Methodists of the old stock. His father, Benj. Davis, has been an exhorter for many years. Our young brother was brought to a personal acceptance of Christ through the influence of the Epworth League. He was received on probation in the church and baptized October 17, 1897, was licensed to exhort in three months, received into full membership in six months and licensed to preach in nine months. He heard the call to the ministry of the gospel with his conversion, and "was not disobedient to the heavenly vision." When his pastor said to him, "God has work for you, my boy," he promptly replied, "I'll go anywhere you send me," and beginning with the next Sabbath after his baptism, he went regularly to fill appointments, regardless of cold or heat, rain or shine, often when his health would seem to forbid. To preach Christ's saving power became with him a passion. He supplied the Elm Grove charge for a few months, was admitted to the Holston Conference at its session in Cleveland last year, and appointed to South Pittsburg, where he was successful beyond the highest expectations of his friends. Bro. Davis was Intellectual, brilliant, grasping the great truths of our ablest writers; he was able to so assimilate their thoughts as to build them into his own mental structure. He was such a natural wit as to make him a most entertaining companion in social life. When his fatal illness seized him, not only his own flock, who so dearly loved him, but preachers and people of all churches, and the citizens generally of South Pittsburg, gathered about him, hoping by prayer and kind attentions to keep him with them. But God needed him in the upper conference, and transferred him. His remains were taken to his childhood home, where in the presence of hundreds of the loved friends of his childhood, he was laid to rest. The funeral services were conducted by Revs. Jas. A. Ruble, M. A. Rule and his former pastor, W. B. Rippetoe, to whom he was endeared as a son in the gospel. The Conference and the church in general has surely sustained a great loss.

W. B. RIPPETOE.

MRS. A. B. WRIGHT.

God has called home from our midst at Burrville, Tennessee, a soul that was washed in the Blood of the Lamb. Sister Wright, the widow of Rev. A. B. Wright, deceased, is no more of this world. She was born in Fentress county, Tennessee, November 28, 1827, and peacefully and triumphantly passed to her reward September 29, 1900. She was the daughter of Cornelius and Deborah Frogge. She was a strong-minded woman. Her Grandfather Frogge was a first cousin to James Madison, who was elected twice President of the United States. Her brother, T. C. Frogge, was a first class Methodist preacher from his youth and a great debater. She was a good Christian woman, self-sacrificing, cross-bearing mother. While her husband was off on his circuits saving souls of others, she was at home caring for her children, imparting to them traits of character that makes great men and women. She was waiting and watching for the angels. She told the writer that nothing was in the way, all was well. "I am going home to meet my dear husband. I want you to preach my funeral. Tell the boys to be sure and meet me in Heaven." Two days before she passed away her boys, J. C., W. D. and T. A. were around her bed. She threw up her hands and said, "Boys, your father has come," and she clapped her hands three times and said, "Glory to God!" The writer preached her funeral in Mt. Vernon Church to a large crowd of friends, and then loving hands put her away to rest by the side of her husband. Sleep on, Sister Wright, until Jesus comes, and we will be gathered home.

A. C. PETERS.

Rev. L. D. Crowder was born in Webster county, Mississippi, February 10, 1844. He grew to manhood at a time when public schools were scarcely known, and hence did not have the advantages of an early education. When the civil war broke out he enlisted in the Confederate Army, more because of the positive means which were being used, than for his love for the cause. After a year's service, having been wounded at the battle of Lookout Mountain, he was allowed to return to his home. He did not enter the service again. When the war closed the Methodist Episcopal Church was established in the State of Mississippi. He was converted and joined the church. In a short time after his conversion he was licensed to preach, and in 1870, he entered the traveling connection in the Mississippi Conference. Here for more than a score of years he rendered faithful service, often encountering difficulties that would have caused many an other person to falter, but he remained faithfully at the post of duty. It is largely due to Brother Crowder's efforts that our church still exists in that part of the country, and that the excellent school now known as Bennett Academy was established. In 1895 he was transferred to the Holston Conference and was assigned to the Fair Garden circuit. At the close of the year, which was full of hardships but replete with success, he was appointed to the Little River circuit, where for three years his ministry stimulated the people to a higher Christian life, and where many lost ones were gathered into the fold; with this circuit his ministry practically ended. Having failed in health, he removed his family to his former home in Mississippi. Here he found temporary relief from his illness, which he mistook for returning health, and at the close of the year he offered himself for active service. He was appointed to the Graysville circuit where he labored for the brief term of two months, when every symptom of his old difficulty returned, and he was stricken down January 2nd. His condition was not at the beginning thought to be serious, and it was thought by his physician that in a few days he would be able to remove to his home. After twelve days' illness, about twenty-four hours before the end came, he sank into a stupor from which he did not arouse. He believed from the beginning that his illness would prove fatal. He spoke tenderly and lovingly of his family, and commended them to the keeping of a good Providence. It was the privilege of the writer to be with him, not in the last hour which came so unexpectedly, but for several days during his sickness. One day while we were watching by his bedside he asked, "Are you praying for my recovery?" We answered "yes." He said "Don't do that, but join me in the prayer that I may go to rest." Then stretching out his hands, he said, "Come quickly, Lord Jesus, and take me home." He died far from home and relatives, but he was not without friends. The good people of his charge had learned to love him during his brief stay with them, and it was a pleasure to see with what devotion these friends addressed themselves to the task of caring for him during his sickness. His remains were taken to his home in Mississippi for interment. Brother Crowder was not an elegant speaker in the common use of that term, but he always met the requirements of the people among whom he labored. He was a good pastor. He was diligent in the work of visiting, giving them always a liberal share of his time. If he lacked the advantage of a college training his natural ability, his indomitable will, and untiring energy, made up in a large measure for the lack of culture. The writer who knew him so many years concurs with one who knew him from boyhood, who said of him: "As a minister he was earnest, faithful and untiring. As a husband and father, he was gentle and kind, as a friend true and obliging, always ready to lighten the burden and gladden the heart of his fellow-man." His was the glorius ending of a truly earnest and devoted life.

J. C. ECKLES.

MRS. J. J. MANKER,

Was born at Hamilton, Ohio, December 13, 1858, and died at Chattanooga, Tenn., April 14, 1900. She was converted in her youth, and joined the Methodist Episcopal church in her native city. In 1880 the family moved to Chattanooga where she connected herself with our church, and became very active in church work. Her leadership of the work among children and young people was especially inspiring. For a number of years she was a teacher in the city schools of Chattanooga.

On February 4th, Miss Kirk became the wife of Rev. J. J. Manker, D. D., presiding elder of Chattanooga district. Active and effective as a leader in church circles before, she now gave herself with the consecrated devotement of all her powers to work for Christ and His church. Animated, magnetic, with remarkable energy, she exerted potent influence for good, and became an earnest leader and great help in the important churches to which her husband was appointed. Frequently, if not always, she wrought beyond her thought. She burned out the vital forces of her being in intense and ardent service. With a body never strong, holding such forces of mind and heart, Mrs. Manker finished her earth work in a few years. She made a brave, struggle to live and work longer here, but there came a higher call. When told at last by her physician that she could live but a few hours, and all in the room were bathed in tears, she said: "Why are you all weeping? It is not an occasion for sorrow, but rather for rejoicing. It is not death, but life—eternal life!"

Saturday evening before Easter she asked her physician if she would be there in time for Easter." On hearing his affirmative reply, with radiant face, and calm and holy confidence, she said, "Then I shall spend Easter Sunday where they know what it means, and have a real palm." She celebrated this joyous festival with her risen Lord.

The funeral services were held in the audience room of the First Methodist church, and she was buried beneath Southern soil in the beautiful Forest Hill cemetery in Chattanooga.
